Williams leads Team Allied at Extremity Games

Langhorne, PA – August 13, 2007 Dennis K. Williams, CP, with Allied Orthotics & Prosthetics of Mt. Laurel, NJ and OPAF Board Member recently led Team Allied to the Extremity Games in Orlando, FL. This is the second year in a row that Allied O & P has sent Dennis to the Extremity Games with patients to compete. Team Allied consisted of Shukri Brittingham, Kyle McCrane, Preston Spence, Brandon Holiday, Steven Shawaryn and Williams. All competed fiercely in the rock climbing competition. Shawaryn also entered the intermediate kayaking event and won first place!

“We are very proud of the job Dennis is doing in leadership with Team Allied and for our practice”, said Jon Shreter, president of Allied O & P. “Dennis shows the diversity of our OPAF Board members and their work towards programs that promote health and fitness for those we serve in the O & P community” said OPAF Executive Director, Robin Burton.
