OPAF welcomes Strobel & Associates as a Patron Level Sponsor

June 20, 2011- Waterloo, Iowa – OPAF & The First Clinics welcome Strobel & Associates Prosthetics, Inc. of Plano, Texas as the newest Patron Level Sponsor for 2011. Their contribution of $1000 to OPAF will allow further development of more First Clinics across the country which offers adaptive recreational possibilities for people with physical challenges, offered at no charge to any participant.

"Strobel & Associates Prosthetics, Inc. is excited about The First Clinics organization and the possibilities it gives amputees to try, and succeed at, a host of different and exciting athletic opportunities. We are proud to be a sponsor of this organization and encourage other prosthetic companies to do the same" said Candy Paquette. Candy Paquette is a Licensed Practitioner Assistant in Prosthetics and a business partner for Strobel & Associates. Candy has been an accomplished amputee since 1968. Candy wears many hats that include, but are not limited to, marketing and technician. She is also able to pass along many years of experience, visiting soon-to-be and new amputees in the hospital, rehab and the Strobel & Associate Prosthetics office.

"We are pleased and proud to welcome yet another patient care facility as a corporate sponsor for OPAF & The First Clinics" said Robin Burton, OPAF Executive Director.
